Section E: Parental leave

1. Introduction

1.1 The law recognises and we respect that there will be occasions when working parents wish to take time off work to care for or spend time with their child or children.

1.2 This section of the policy reflects the statutory right of employees with at least one year's continuous service to take up to 18 weeks' unpaid parental leave in respect of each child.

2. Entitlement to parental leave

2.1 Employees who fulfil the criteria set out in this paragraph 2.3 (below) are entitled to take up to 18 weeks' parental leave in relation to each child for whom they are responsible. The rules on how and when parental leave can be taken are set out in paragraph 3 to paragraph 6.

2.2 Any parental leave that employees take in relation to a child while working for another employer counts towards their 18-week entitlement. If you have taken parental leave in relation to a child during previous or concurrent employment, you should provide details to the HR Team.

2.3 To take a period of parental leave in relation to a child, you must:

(a) Have at least one year's continuous employment;

(b) Have or expect to have responsibility for the child; and

(c) Be taking the leave to spend time with or otherwise care for the child.

2.4 You have responsibility for a child if you:

(a) Are the child's biological mother or father (whether or not you are living with the child);

(b) Are the child's adoptive parent; or

(c) Otherwise have legal parental responsibility for the child. For example, if you are the child's guardian.

3. Timing of parental leave

3.1 You can only take parental leave before the child's 18th birthday.

3.2 You are only entitled to take four weeks' parental leave each year in relation to each child. A year for this purpose begins on the date when you became entitled to take parental leave in relation to the child in question.

3.3 Unless the leave is to be taken in respect of a child entitled to a disability living allowance, you can only take parental leave in blocks of a week's leave or a multiple of a week's leave.

4. Notification requirements

4.1 You must give notice of your intention to take parental leave in writing. The notice requirements are as follows:

(a) If you wish to take parental leave commencing immediately on the birth of a child, you must give notice of this intention at least 21 days before the start

(c) If applicable, the child's entitlement to a disability living allowance.

5.2 For details of what evidence is required in your particular circumstances, or if you have difficulties obtaining the evidence, please contact the HR Team.

6. Our right to postpone parental leave

6.1 Where you give notice in accorda

(a) you must have at least 26 weeks continuous employment with us by the end of the Qualifying Week, and still be employed by us in the week before the leave is to be taken;

(b) the other parent must have worked (in an employed or self-employed capacity) in at least 26 of the 66 weeks before the EWC and have earned at least £390 in total across any 13 of the 66 weeks; and

(c) you and the other parent must give the necessary statutory notices and declarations as summarised below, including notice to end any maternity leave, statutory maternity pay (SMP) or maternity allowance (MA) periods.

3.3 The total amount of SPL available is 52 weeks less the weeks spent by the child's mother on maternity leave (or the weeks in which the mother has been in receipt of SMP or MA if she is not entitled to maternity leave).

3.4 If you are the mother you cannot start SPL until after the compulsory maternity leave period, which lasts until two weeks after birth.

3.5 If you are the child's father or the mother's partner, you should consider using your two weeks' paternity leave before taking SPL (see section C Paternity leave and pay). Once you start SPL you will lose any untaken paternity leave entitlement. SPL entitlement is additional to your paternity leave entitlement.

4. Entitlement to SPL when a child is adopted

4.1 You may be entitled to SPL if an adoption agency has placed a child with you and/or your partner for adoption and you intend to share the main responsibility for the care of the child with your partner.

4.2 The following conditions must be fulfilled:

(a) you must have at least 26 weeks continuous employment with us by the end of the Qualifying Week, and still be employed by us in the week before the leave is to be taken;

(b) your partner must have worked (in an employed or self-employed capacity) in at least 26 of the 66 weeks before the Qualifying Week and have earned at least £390 in total across any 13 of the 66 weeks ; and

(c) you and your partner must give the necessary statutory notices and declarations as summarised below, including notice to end adoption leave or statutory adoption pay (SAP).

11.7 A notice to cancel or change a period of leave will count as one of your three period of leave notices, unless:

(a) the variation is a result of your child being born or placed earlier or later than the EWC or expected placement date;

(b) the variation is at our request; or

(c) we agree otherwise.

12. Shared parental pay

12.1 ShPP of up to 39 weeks (less any weeks of SMP or SAP claimed by you or the other parent/eligible partner) may be available provided you have at least 26 weeks' continuous employment with us at the end of the Qualifying Week and your average earnings are not less than the lower earnings limit set by the government each tax year. ShPP is paid at a rate set by the government each year.

13. Other terms during shared parental leave

13.1 Your terms and conditions of employment remain in force during SPL, except for the terms relating to pay.

13.2 Annual leave entitlement will continue to accrue at the rate provided under your contract. Annual leave cannot usually be carried over from one holiday year to the next. If the holiday year is due to end during your shared parental leave, you should ensure that you have taken the full year's entitlement before starting your shared parental leave. Any holiday entitlement that cannot reasonably be taken before starting your leave may be carried over and must be taken immediately before returning to work unless your manager agrees otherwise. You should try to limit carry over to one week's holiday or less. Carry-over of more than one week is at your manager's discretion. Please discuss your holiday plans with your line manager in good time before starting SPL. All holiday dates are subject to approval by your line manager and the Principal for teaching staff or the Academy Operations Manager for support staff.

13.3 If you are a member of the pension scheme, we will make employer pension contributions during any period of paid SPL, based on your normal salary, in accordance with the pension scheme rules. Any employee contributions you make will be based on the amount of any shared parental pay you are receiving, unless you inform the HR team that you wish to make up any shortfall.

14. Keeping in touch

14.1 Shortly before your SPL starts we will discuss with you the arrangements for covering your work and the opportunities for you to remain in contact, should you wish to do so, during your leave. Unless you request otherwise, you will
